Gentlemen:

Re: Picillo Site, Coventry, Rhode Island
U. S. Environmental Protection Agency, Region I Letter to Schenectady Chemicals, Inc.
dated October 27, 1987.

While we have received the above letter from you on behalf of your Agency to our client, none of the information contained therein or annexed thereto provides any connection between Schenectady Chemicals, Inc. and the above site.

Since Schenectady Chemicals, Inc. has cooperated with the investigation by your Agency from at least September 21, 1982, to date we have not received any information which establishes a connection between Schenectady Chemicals, Inc. and the above site.

In the event a Freedom of Information Law request is necessary to provide this information, please forward the necessary forms or name and address of the agency which has them, so that we may complete the same and make the appropriate filing.

To our knowledge, Schenectady Chemicals, Inc. has neither sent any waste to the above site, nor has it seen any documentation whatsoever which in any way links it to the above site.

In the event you are unable to provide us with the material requested herein, we respectfully request that you delist Schenectady Chemicals, Inc. as a named potentially responsible party at the above site.
